¹The Employer had originally filed exceptions and a supporting brief to the Regional Director's Report. The Regional Director, by her representative, filed a Motion to Reject the Employer's Exceptions and Brief in Support of Exceptions, contending that under the Board's rules, the Employer had no right to file exceptions to the report, but needed to file a request for special permission to appeal. The Employer thereupon filed such a request that reiterated the arguments previously set forth in its exceptions and brief. We have considered the Employer's Exceptions and Brief as part of its Request for Special Permission to Appeal and Appeal. See NLRB Rules and Regulations, Sec. 102.69(i)(1); NLRB Casehandling Manual, Part Two, Representation Proceedings, Sec. 11366.1(b), 11396.1. We therefore find the Regional Director's Motion to Reject to be moot.
